First Commonwealth Bank and First Guaranty Bank Announce Plan of Merger

February 22, 2017- Greg A. Wilson, President & CEO of First Commonwealth Bank and Charles Johnson, President & CEO of First Guaranty Bank are pleased to jointly announce the signing of a definitive agreement and plan of merger. The definitive agreement, which is subject to customary regulatory approval, has been approved by the Boards of both banks.

"We are very excited to announce the merger with First Guaranty Bank," said Greg A. Wilson.

"The merger will join together two strong community banks that share a similar culture of commitment and service to the people of Floyd County and Eastern Kentucky. The First Guaranty Bank Board and team have built a strong bank with great customer relationships. We look forward to continuing that legacy and growing together," Wilson continued.

"First Commonwealth Bank is the perfect fit for us", said Charles Johnson. Johnson continued, "together we will be able to provide expanded products and services to our customers with a continued focus and commitment to our area."

It is anticipated that the merger of the banks could occur during the second quarter of this year.
