FIRST STATE BANK TO ACQUIRE ADVANTAGE BANK BRANCH IN DOWNTOWN WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE

Locally-Based Community Financial Institution to Serve Fayette County

January 2, 2014 - First State Bank announced today that it has signed a branch purchase agreement to acquire the Advantage Bank branch in downtown Washington Court House, located at 134 East Court Street. The acquisition will include deposits of $40 million [as of September 30, 2013], loans of $19 million [as of September 30, 2013], and certain fixed assets associated with the branch.

This transaction will increase the total assets of First State Bank to approximately $310 million across its ten banking centers located in Adams, Brown, Highland and Fayette counties. Subject to regulatory approvals, the transaction is anticipated to be complete in early 2014.

“We are very pleased to be expanding into the Fayette County market,” said Mike Pell, President and CEO of First State Bank. “Over the years, our success has been built on providing superior banking products and exceptional customer service. We believe this approach will be very well received in Fayette County,” said Pell.

In October of 2013 Camco Financial Corporation, the parent of Advantage Bank, announced that it entered into an agreement to merge with Huntington Bancshares Incorporated. Completion of the branch purchase is subject to customary closing conditions, including receipt of regulatory approvals, and the closing of the Camco merger with Huntington.

First State Bank offers customers a full range of products including traditional, personal and commercial loan and deposit solutions, with the added capacity for retail service. Additionally, First State Bank customers have the option of convenient online and mobile banking.

Dedicated to providing exceptional customer service and high value products while enhancing shareholder value, First State Bank has been a trusted and respected community institution since 1884. All banking center operations and management are locally controlled. To learn more about First State Bank, visit www.fsb4me.com.
